Our Objectives

The objectives of OUTLine New Zealand Inc:

- I. To support, affirm and advance the Aotearoa New Zealand Rainbow Communities* to achieve successful outcomes by:
 - a. providing programmes which cater for social, educational and emotional needs,
 - b. advocating for social, cultural and political rights, and
 - c. nurturing and providing resources to meet community needs.
- II. To operate a general peer support service (known as OUTLine New Zealand) staffed by self-accepting Rainbow People*, offering information, peer support and supportive counselling.
- III. To provide face to face counselling where this is appropriate.
- IV. To operate a regular meeting and discussion place.
- V. To work actively to ensure the mental, emotional and physical well-being of people affected by issues and challenges around sexual orientation and/or gender identity within the Rainbow Communities.
- VI. To publish a regular newsletter of interest to the Rainbow Communities.
- VII. To strive to support Rainbow Communities by providing speakers and educational material.
- VIII. To conduct courses on the skills and self-awareness to be considered to be beneficial in the context of living successfully as Rainbow People and to train self-accepting Rainbow People in the counselling skills that will enable them to work with others who may require support in coming to accept them.
- IX. To foster, promote, organise and manage such amenities and facilities, social or otherwise, as the group may think necessary or expedient in furthering its objects.

 We use "Rainbow" as an umbrella term to describe people who do not identify as heterosexual, do not fit typical gender norms, and/or we are born with bodies that do not match common biological definitions of male or female. This includes a range of identities and experiences, and encompasses:*

- Sexual orientation
- Diverse gender identity
- Diversity of sex characteristics

The rainbow population also includes people who do not use a specific identity label, people whose identity changes over time, and people who are in the process of understanding their own identity, and may not have 'come out' to themselves or others.
